

A PRAYER OF THE HOLY FAMILY

The road we take leads toward the promise of security and stability for we flee not solely in fear, nor do we make this pilgrimage for the pursuit of untold riches.

We do not seek to spread terror, for how dearly do we cling on to hope in knowing that goodness abounds wherever we shall land as a unit, but much more than a statistic or a painfully vetted file, rather, a family, peculiar and unusual like any other:
united, courageous, holy.

Inspired by Matthew 2: 13-23

Image: Refugees: La Sagrada Familia by Kelly Latimore

