

A PRAYER FOR WELCOME AND PROTECTION

When doors are closed to the weary,
As they journey to find refuge,
May we be there to open,
To welcome our sisters and brothers
Who need care and protection,
A place to rest their head.

And if powers prevent us
From opening our doors,
May we be animated by the Spirit
To cry out at the injustice
That keeps those most in need
From receiving the protection they deserve

Image by Erica Tighe Campbell

